Beautiful stone mansion with a separate guest house and a swimming pool located in a mountainous village with picturesque views of the lush green hills and the valley

Set in the tranquil and mountainous village of Karia, this charming old stone house dates back to 1870, has been carefully renovated, with attention to detail and reflects the local architecture with a combination of local stone, dark wood and antique furnishing from 1870-1940.

The property spreads over a plot of 440 sqm and includes the main house of 160 sqm and a guest house of 50 sqm.

The ground floor of the main house presents a spacious open-plan living area with a fireplace, the dining and kitchen area with a breakfast bar where you have direct access to the stone-paved terrace. Through an open wooden staircase, you reach the first floor with the 3 bedrooms, the one with a sitting hall and a large bathroom with a bath.

The spacious outside space with the stone-paved veranda and the mature mulberry tree offers an 8.00 x 4.00 m swimming pool, a lovely lounge area overlooking the surrounding countryside and a built-in BBQ. Beside the pool area, is featured the guest house of 50 sqm with a large bedroom and a bathroom with a jacuzzi.
