A spacious 4-bedroom villa set on a hillside above the sea with incomparable views over the bay, the beach, and the neighboring islands

Designed and styled with classic Mediterranean details, this villa offers all the comforts one seeks in a home on a Greek island: spacious rooms, fantastic sea views as well as quick accessibility to the beach and local restaurants.

A beautiful panorama framed by the large glass doors that run along the main living area welcomes and greets you once inside. The lounge, dining area, and kitchen harmoniously flow together and offer access to the terrace and pool. All bedrooms are ensuite and spacious enough to accommodate double beds and feature their own terraces for those who seek to take in the views in privacy.

The extensive outdoor area is well thought out with multiple terraces accented with colorful flowers, shrubs and trees, a loggia for dining and lounging, a covered bbq space, and an "L" shaped infinity pool measuring 126m² with incredible views.
