A tranquil stone retreat in a lush green setting

Set in a verdant landscape, this charming single-level stone home offers a perfect blend of comfort, character, and natural beauty.

Thoughtfully designed, the residence features two spacious bedrooms, including a private en-suite, along with an additional well-appointed bathroom. At the heart of the home lies an open-plan living space with striking high vaulted ceilings, creating an airy and inviting atmosphere. The custom-made kitchen, complete with a central island, is both functional and stylish - ideal for everyday living and entertaining. A separate laundry room adds to the home's practicality.

Outdoors, the property truly shines. Multiple shaded seating areas are nestled beneath age-old olive trees, surrounded by vibrant, multicolored flowers that enhance the sense of tranquility. A plunge pool offers a refreshing escape during warmer months, while the outdoor kitchen makes al fresco dining effortless.

Additional features include underfloor heating for year-round comfort, covered parking, and a garden shed for tools and storage.
